

LEBANON COUNTY COMMUNITY CONCERT ASSOCIATION

1934-2009

For over 75 years Lebanon County Community Concerts has been bringing outstanding live music to the Lebanon County. Included in performances through the years were well-known musicians and performing groups including big-name bands and orchestras like the Pittsburgh Symphony, the Rochester Philharmonic, the National Symphony, Artie Shaw, and the Tommy Dorsey Orchestra. Smaller ensembles included the Zurich Chamber Orchestra, the Munich Chamber Orchestra, the Belgrade Chamber Orchestra, and the Prague Chamber Orchestra. The operas, "La Boheme", "Rigoletto", "The Marriage of Figaro", and "The Merry Widow" have been featured. Among vocal ensembles, engaged by LCCCA were The Four Freshmen, Roger Wagner Chorale, The Don Cossacks Chorus, the Robert Shaw Chorale, the Vienna Boys Choir, and The Trapp Family Singers. Ballet has been represented in the Ballet Russe de Monte Carlo, The New York Theatre Ballet, and the Jeffrey II Ballet. Individual artists who came to Lebanon included Helen Jepson, Elisabeth Von Trapp, Helen Reddy, Nathan Granner, and Frank D'Amrosio. We are pleased to announce that in 2008-2009 the following artists will be showcased...
